The Detroit Post of the 18th says: "One of the arrivals at this port vesterday was that of a man named James R. Gay, who started to row from Boston to this city. on a wager of $3,000, made between two Boston men 109 days ago, he to receive $500 if reaching this city in four mouths. The trip, which has been occasionally Atlantic coast of Maine, Gulf of St. Lawrence, the lakes, and their connections to this point. The time allowed sideration that O'Leary makes 62 miles miles, the irrepressible Sergeant Bates 30 miles, and Captain Webb swims 22 miles his time eleven days, is a short, thick-set man, with an extremely florid countenance and heavy, full face. He is a native of Keene, N. H., and has spent most of his life on the water, so that the exertion. if such it was, came very natural to him. He has probably had an easier time while attempting to win his prize than when ample supply of provisions, but had leisure enough to enjoy the tarmer hosgerous adventures, but that his voyage was almost monotonous in its freedom from stirring incident. History of Cheboygan. The Centennial history of Chebovgan. which was prepared by Rev. W.H. Ware, for the Fourth of July celebration, has been greatly improved and enlarged since that time by Mr. Ware, and will shortly be published by him. It will be the only correct history of the county ever prepared, and will contain many tables of valuable statistics relating to the past and present business of the county. Since reading it on the Fourth in the incomplete state which he was compelled to do, on account of the limited time given him to prepare it. Mr. Ware has spent one for future reterence as well as present interest; one which every citizen of Cheboygan should possess. There will probably be no county in the state which rate history prepared.

Republican Caucus. The Republicans of the township of Benton met at Geo. W. Bell's office on Wednesday evening, pursuant to call, to select delegates to the county convention. The caucus was organized by the election of W. S. Humphrey as Chairman, and Geo. W. Bell as Secretary. The following persons were selected to serve as delegates to the county convention: R.
